

Eric H. Holbrook

Eric Holbrook is an Assistant Director on the U.S. Government Accountability Office's Financial Management and Assurance Team. His work focuses on revising, promoting, and interpreting Government Auditing Standards, commonly known as the "yellow book." Eric regularly contributes to GAO's reports on grants management and he is on the audit team for the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission's financial audit. Before he started with GAO, Eric worked with the Maine State Department of Audit on Maine's single audit and then with the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration to ensure that agency's compliance with the requirements of OMB's Circular A-123, Management's Responsibility for Internal Control. Eric graduated from the University of Vermont and received his MS degree in Accounting from Southern New Hampshire University. He is a Certified Public Accountant, a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, and a member of the Association of Government Accountants.
