Office of the City Auditor – Kansas City, Missouri

Why Performance Measures?

Percent of residents rating services
good or excellent

Library circulation per capita

Percent of fires contained

Average call wait times

Cost per lane mile

Crime rate

Revenue per capita

Number of potholes filled

Why Should Audit Organizations Measure Their Performance?

- ◆ Manage work
- ◆ Monitor performance
- ◆ Report results
- ◆ Accountability
- ◆ Demonstrate value

Audit Organization Performance Measures Project

- ◆ Guidance and examples of indicators.
- ◆ Measuring audit function impact and performance.
- ◆ Not an exhaustive or normative list.
- ◆ Organizations should pick and choose, and modify based on circumstances and experience.

Methodology

ALGA Guidance on Performance Measures for Audit Organizations

- ◆ Quantitative and Qualitative measures.
- ◆ Relevance of performance measure.
- ◆ What data is needed to calculate performance measure.
- ◆ How to calculate each performance measure.

Considerations in Use of Performance Measures Guide

- ◆ There isn't a "one size fits all" set of performance measures.
- ◆ Audit shops should develop their own specific measures that best meet their needs.

CITY AUDITOR

The City Auditor's Office conducts performance audits that identify ways to increase the economy, efficiency, effectiveness, and accountability of City government and provide independent, reliable, accurate, and timely information to the City Council and other stakeholders. The Office also oversees a variety of external audits including the Comprehensive Annual Financial Report (CAFR) and the Single Audit.

The City Auditor's annual work plan is on the web along with copies of all issued audit reports and the semi-annual recommendation status reports.

The Office's operating budget totaled $2.4 million* in 2015-16. Staffing remained at 15 positions; this was 2 positions less than 10 years ago.

In 2015-16, the City Auditor's Office identified $5 million in monetary benefits from its audit recommendations, or $2.07 in savings for every $1 spent on audit costs in 2015-16 (target: $4 to $1). Identified monetary benefits vary from year to year based on the types of audits that are conducted.

*In addition to expenditures paid out of its operating budget, the City Auditor's Office was also responsible for $320,000 in actual Citywide expenses in 2015-16 for the annual audit, bond project audits, and the grant compliance single audit.

KEY FACTS (2015-16)

THE MISSION OF THE CITY AUDITOR'S OFFICE IS TO CREATE REAL, POSITIVE CHANGE WITHIN OUR CITY government by making reasonable, useful and worthwhile recommendations while continuously focusing on increasing and protecting the City's revenues, safeguarding the City's assets and reducing the potential for fraud.

From 2010-2014, the City Auditor's Office issued 53 reports containing 256 active recommendations to 16 City departments. This report summarizes the status of the 256 active recommendations provided by departments. Due to the extensive number of recommendations, information provided by departments was not verified, but is subject to follow-up audit procedures in the future.
