

Russell P. Martin, TIGTA

Russell began his career in 1989 with the Inspection Service in Andover, Massachusetts, and joined the Treasury Inspector General for Tax Administration (TIGTA) in 1989. Since then Russell has held numerous positions within TIGTA including Senior Auditor, Audit Manager, Director, and Acting Assistant Inspector General for Audit - Management Services and Exempt Organization. Russell currently serves as the Acting Assistant Inspector General for Audit – Returns Processing and Account Services with responsibility for a nationwide program that addresses the Internal Revenue Service tax return processing and account services programs. Russell is a graduate of Nichols College with a Bachelor of Science in Accounting.